

Ira Van Order

Obedience For Puppies, CGC and AKC Trick Dog

Ira began dog-training in 2003 & has attained titles in Obedience, Rally Obedience, Conformation, Flyball and Trick Dog. She has also done Agility, Nosework, Water Rescue, Carting, Lure Coursing, Tracking, & Freestyle. Her motto with regards to dog activities is – “Whatever Makes My Dogs Happy!!” She is heavily involved with the Leonberger Club of America, especially with Leonberger Rescue (evaluating, transporting and fostering), stewarding at various shows and therapy work. She started Warp Drive (a flyball racing team) and the Lebanon County Dog Park Association. She is also an AKC CGC and Trick Dog evaluator. Currently, she lives with 2 Leonbergers. Her training philosophy has always been to do whatever works for both owners and dogs so they can live mutually enriched lives, and to prevent people from giving up on their dogs.
